

Neil Bonin Class of 1976

Actor

Since starting his acting career, Neil has appeared in over 100 commercials for clients like AT&T, BMW, Charles Schwab, Jiffy Lube, AARP, and Red Lobster. He was the spokesman for The Philadelphia Phillies for two years including 1983 when his beloved Baltimore Orioles beat the Phillies in The World Series. He has also appeared on numerous soap operas including All My Children, As The World Turns, and Loving. His film credits include Mind The Gap, Murder Rhapsody, and You've Got Mail.

