

Nolan Church Jr. Class of 1972

Musician, DJ, Videographer, Website Designer

After graduating from Towson U in '78, he went on the road playing music. Some of the bands he was in include Eliza Jane, Lexington Park, Magic Band Show, Upper Class, Sweetwater and Michael Hoover's "Memories of Elvis". With Hoover they opened for Roseanne Barr. He also did a solo act including a 4 year stint at the Carousel Hotel in Ocean City MD, and the piano bar on the Amtrak train between Washington and Montreal. In his solo act he plays guitar and keyboards and sing accompanied by pre recorded tracks. He is also a DJ and was the DJ for Chelsea Clinton's prom. In the late 80's he started working as a freelance videographer. In the late '90's Nolan started designing websites.

Presently, he does all that and finds the time to play keyboards in the Kathleen McGrath Band.
