

Shelley Flynn Sykes Class of 1974

Author

Shelly co-authored the Gettysburg Ghost Gang with Lois Szmanski and wrote a mystery for young adults called "For Mike," which was an honor book in the Delacorte Young Adult Novel contest and was nominated for an EDGAR award by The Mystery Writers of America. She is currently working on a nonfiction story about a murder trial in 1895 Virginia. She has finished all of the courthouse research now and will be digging thru newspaper archives next. She hopes to have it done in about a year, if she can find what she is looking for.

